Spotty Snowstorm

A spotty snowstorm is heading your way!
You entered my territory,
Now you must pay...

I am a leopard,
Watching, waiting
My claws are like a chainsaw,
They'll rip you to pieces!

I am a leopard,
Watching, waiting...
My lightning luminous eyes light up the dark,
Watching with a mysterious glow,

I am a leopard,
Watching, waiting
My blood is filled with menace,
That flows through my veins of death and destruction!

I am a leopard,
Watching, waiting...
I am the eyes and ears of the frightful forest!
Lurking in the devilish dark...

I am a leopard,
Watching, waiting...
My spots are eyes,
Peering in at you from all directions...

I am a leopard,
Watching, waiting...
The trees are my silent soldiers,
They part when I approach,
You can't see me,
But I can see you...

I am a leopard,
Watching, waiting...
You get drawn in by my moon-like eyes,
Death is upon you...

I swipe,
I kill!

I see your blood, as red as a ruby,
My clever cubs are hungry,
I am a leopard,
Menacingly munching.
