Collect

Almighty God,
who in Christ makest all things new:
transform the poverty of our nature by the riches of thy grace,
and in the renewal of our lives
make known thy heavenly glory;
through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord,
who liveth and reigneth with thee,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Confessions of a Reader

The seeds sown, upon hearing a sermon preached, but with a young family and a full time job, thoughts lay dormant. Unready and unprepared I joined a bible study group. Upon David's arrival I was nudged into furthering this goal. Firstly I spent two years studying "Exploring Christianity". This was both challenging and fulfilling. Upon completion I faced my nemesis; an all day interview at The Old Deanery. Nerves got the better of me and I failed at this attempt. Devastated and feeling a failure I reapplied, praying for courage and was successful. After a year's training, mainly on preaching techniques, I was licensed, a wonderful moment. Initially nervous I have grown into my role. I hope I can convey the joy I feel when I preach and perhaps help others develop a deeper relationship with God.

THANK YOU...

"I WOULD LIKE TO SAY A BIG THANK YOU to all of you for the beautiful gifts you gave me last Sunday. It was really such a surprise and totally unexpected! One person I forgot to thank was Val Roper. Val has been my 'right hand' for the past year as my health continued to deteriorate. At times she took the responsibility of getting everything ready for all the Arrangers. Not an easy task! So my heartfelt thanks to you Val for all you have done and continue to do for me.

*My thanks once again to you all." Bonnie Tilbrook

I am a partially-sighted lady and parishioner at All Saints church, Kenton in Devon <http://www.allsaintskenton.org.uk/>. This year I am walking from Dunnet Head (north of John O'Groats) to Lands End, via Holy Island, for my local hospice (<https://www.hospiscare.co.uk/>). You may appreciate that this is a big undertaking for me, not least logistically. I am camping and hostelling wherever possible in a bid to reduce my costs and I am asking for help from church communities along the way.

Specifically, I am coming through Glastonbury on Sunday 29th July this year.

Please could I put out a request to your congregations for any offers of help?

My email address is: pips2018plod@yahoo.com.

Thank you. Sylvia Bowhay
